

I have observed a dramatic decrease in local ownership of radio stations under current FCC rules, and a corresponding decrease in local programming, including news and public service content. I ask that you reduce the number of radio and TV stations that a single company can own, rather than increase that number.